1. About MYONESUPER

MYONESUPER is a sub-plan of OneSuper ABN 43 905 581 638 RSE R1001341 (formerly Smartsave 'Member's Choice' Superannuation Master Plan) (the Fund). The Trustee of the Fund is Diversa Trustees Limited. The Sponsor and Promoter of the Fund and MYONESUPER is OneVue Wealth.

MYONESUPER is an accumulation superannuation and pension product. It offers superannuation options, investment options and insurance options.

Superannuation options

- Accumulation Account (accumulation phase) which applies during your working life,
- Transition to Retirement Pension Account where in certain circumstances you can draw some of your preserved super while you are still working, and
- Pension Account where you can enjoy a pension income after you have reached your preservation age and have permanently retired or have met another condition of release.

Investment Options

MYONESUPER offers a flexible range of pre-mixed Pooled Investments. Refer to section 5 of this PDS and the Additional Information Guide for more information.

Insurance options

MYONESUPER offers Group Insurance (including default cover and voluntary cover) and Retail Insurance covering Death, Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) and Income Protection. You can pay your insurance premiums out of your superannuation. Refer to section 8 of this document and the Insurance Guide for more information.

Trustee disclosure

The Trustee is required to disclose certain information and documentation in relation to themselves and the Fund on a website. This information and documentation is available at onesuper.com and includes but is not limited to the Trust Deed, the PDS and the PDS Guides, executive remuneration disclosure, the most recent Annual Report and the names of each material outsourced service provider to the Fund.

2. How super works

Super is an important long-term way to save for your retirement and is, in part, compulsory. There are tax concessions provided by the Australian Government to help you save more money in your super. However, there are limits to how much you and your employer can contribute under the tax concessions. There are also limits and rules about when you can access your super. When you reach age 60, withdrawals from your super will generally be tax-free. Refer to section 7 of this document and the Additional Information Guide for more information on how super is taxed.

Contributing to your super

Different types of contributions can be made to your super including the super guarantee contributions made by your employer, any voluntary personal contributions you make, and if you are eligible, the Australian Government will also co-contribute to your super.

If you are working, your employer usually must make super guarantee contributions to your super. Currently, this is 9.5% of your 'ordinary time earnings'.

Contributions can also be made through salary sacrifice (by asking your employer to deduct extra money and contribute into super before tax is taken out), by making your own personal contributions (for example if you are self-employed), by contributions made by your spouse on your behalf, or by directing personal voluntary savings into your super.

Choosing your own super

Generally, you can choose which super fund your super guarantee contributions are paid into by your employer. If you do not have a choice or you do not tell your employer which super fund to pay your super guarantee contributions into, they will be directed into a super fund chosen by your employer.

Consolidating your super

You can take MYONESUPER from job to job and you can consolidate your current super account and any other existing super accounts into MYONESUPER to help you avoid having multiple super funds and fees. Before doing so, please consider any potential loss of existing insurance or other benefits you may have with your existing super fund.

Accessing your super

As super is designed to help you save for retirement, there are limits and rules about when you can access your super, usually from when you turn 65, reach your preservation age (between 55 and 60, depending on your date of birth) and have permanently retired from the workforce. There are limited circumstances when early access to your super may be available if you meet a "condition of release", for example, compassionate grounds, severe financial hardship, or permanent incapacity for work or through the First Home Super Saver Scheme, if eligible.

Pension

Once you meet certain criteria you can start a pension by opening:

- a Transition to Retirement Pension Account, when you reach your preservation age and remain in employment, or
- a Pension Account, when you retire permanently or reach age 65 or meet another condition of release.

Further details about Pension Accounts can be found in Part 2 of the Additional Information Guide. A minimum amount of $20,000 is required to start a pension, which can be transferred from your Accumulation Account or other sources. The eligibility criteria for each Pension Account can be found in the Additional Information Guide.

You can choose your regular pension payment within the prescribed limits set by the Australian Government. Consult your adviser or go to ato.gov.au/super for more information.

You may make a lump sum withdrawal, however, a lump sum withdrawal made from a Transition to Retirement Pension Account can only be made:

- if your Account has an unrestricted non-preserved component and your lump sum withdrawal does not exceed this amount, or
- if you satisfy a "condition of release" with a "nil" cash restriction, or
- to give effect to a payment split under Family Law.

More information You should read the important information about how super works before making a decision. Go to Part 2 in the Additional Information Guide and refer to ASIC's Moneysmart website at moneysmart.gov.au. Material about how super works may change between the time you read this PDS and the day when you acquire the product.

4. Risks of super

All investments carry risk. Super funds may invest in a range of asset classes – for example, cash, fixed interest, property and shares – that have different levels of risks.

The likely investment return, and the risk of losing money is different for each investment option depending on the assets that make up the investment strategy. Generally, the highest long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk.

Investments risks

It is important to understand and consider the investment risks in super before you invest:

- the value of the investment will go up and down,
- the level of returns will vary, and future returns may differ from past returns,
- returns are not guaranteed and you may lose some of your money,
- the amount of your future superannuation savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement,
- laws affecting your super and pension may change in the future, and
- the level of risk for you will vary depending on a range of factors including your age, your investment timeframes, where other parts of your wealth are invested and your risk tolerance.

Other risks

Other risks associated with investing in MYONESUPER include:

- Capital risk
- Market risk
- Inflation risk
- Settlement risk
- Interest rate risk
- Exchange rate risk
- Derivatives risk
- Fund risk
- Operational risk
- Legal and Regulatory risk
- Credit risk
- Investment management risk
- Country/Emerging markets risk
- Valuation risk
- Leverage risk
- Borrowing risk
- Liquidity risk
- Longevity risk

More information You should read the important information on the risks of investing in MYONESUPER in Part 4 of the Additional Information Guide before making a decision. The material about the risks of investing in MYONESUPER may change between the time you read this PDS and the day when you acquire the product.

6. Fees and costs

Consumer advisory warning:

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees.¹ Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

Fees and costs table

This document shows the fees and costs that you may be charged for the 'Balanced' Pooled Investment Option. Most assets of MYONESUPER are invested in this option. These fees and costs may be deducted directly from your money, from your returns on your investment or from the assets of the Fund as a whole. You should use this table to compare this superannuation product with other superannuation products. Other fees, such as activity fees, advice fees for personal advice and insurance fees, may also be charged, but these will depend on the nature of the activity, advice or insurance chosen by you. Entry fees and exit fees cannot be charged. Taxes, insurance fees and other costs relating to insurance are set out in the Insurance Guide. You should read all the information about fees and other costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment. All fees disclosed in this PDS are GST inclusive. The fees and costs will depend on the Investment Options you select. For each other Pooled Investment Option, fees and costs are available in Part 5 of the Additional Information Guide

7. How super is taxed

This section provides a summary of the significant tax information relating to superannuation. It is based on the laws that apply at the date this PDS is issued and changes in the law or its interpretation may affect the tax consequences of investing in MYONESUPER. For professional advice tailored to your personal circumstances you should consult a tax adviser.

Super is taxed at three stages, contributions, earnings and withdrawals and the tax is paid directly to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

TFN Information

Warning: While it is not compulsory, don't forget to provide your tax file number (TFN) so you can benefit from the lower tax rates applied to superannuation contributions. Without your TFN, a higher tax rate will also be applied when it's time to access your super and on certain contributions we receive for you. Without your TFN personal contributions cannot be accepted by super funds.

Tax on contributions

Concessional contributions such as superannuation guarantee (SG) contributions and salary sacrifice, up to the concessional contribution cap are generally taxed at the concessional rate. Non-concessional contributions such as contributions made from after-tax income, up to the non-concessional contribution cap, are not taxed.

What happens if you exceed the contribution caps?

Warning: There are significant tax implications if you exceed the caps during a financial year. For more information on contributions, contribution caps and applicable taxes, please refer to section 7 of the Additional Information Guide or go to ato.gov.au/super.

Tax on super investment earnings

Generally, investment earnings within your Super and Transition to Retirement Accounts will be taxed at a maximum of 15%. Tax is deducted from investment income before unit prices or earning rates are determined depending on your investments.

Tax on withdrawals

Withdrawal benefits may be taxed if you are aged less than 60. The tax will be deducted from your withdrawal benefit. If you are aged 60 or over, no tax will apply to your withdrawal benefit, unless you are a temporary resident.

Tax on death benefits

Lump sum death benefits paid to dependants for tax purposes are fully tax free. The tax treatment for lump sum benefits paid to non-dependants for tax purposes is different. No tax is payable in respect of any tax-free component while any taxable component will be taxed at rates between 15% to 30%, plus any applicable levies.

More information - You should read the important information about how super is taxed before making a decision. Refer to Part 7 of the Additional Information Guide or ato.gov.au/super. The material relating to taxation of your super may change between the time you read this PDS and the day when you acquire the product.

8. Insurance in your super

Types of cover

Subject to meeting the eligibility criteria, you can access insurance cover through MYONESUPER to help protect your family's financial security against the unexpected. Both Group Life (default cover and voluntary cover) and Group Income Protection (voluntary cover) are available in MYONESUPER.

Options available for Group Insurance cover include:

- Death insurance which provides a lump sum benefit in the event of death, or if you are diagnosed with a Terminal Illness,
- TPD insurance provides a lump sum benefit if you suffer a TPD event, and
- Income Protection pays a set percentage of your monthly income for a pre-defined length of time in the event that you suffer Total Disability as a result of illness or injury.

Your insurance cover will not commence until your first contribution or rollover has been received, an insurance premium is paid for out of your Accumulation Account and confirmation of the insurance cover has been provided. Default Group Life insurance cover in the Personal Division is New Events cover for the first thirty-six months of your membership. Any pre-existing illness or injuries are not covered during this time. Refer to the MYONESUPER Insurance Guide for further information on new events cover.

Types of Group Life insurance

MYONESUPER offers two types of Group Life default insurance cover – personal and employee, and voluntary cover, which is subject to underwriting.

The type of default insurance cover available to you is determined by your employment status.

Default cover when you join as a Personal Division member

Provided you choose to accept insurance cover when you join MYONESUPER and you have received confirmation the insurance cover has been provided, you will receive default Death and TPD insurance cover without any medical underwriting, with cover commencing on the date the first contribution or rollover is received into your Account. You may choose to reduce or decline this cover at any time. The value of the default Group Life insurance cover sum insured and cost of default cover will depend on your age, your occupation and your gender. As you age, the amount of insurance cover provided to you and the cost of insurance changes. Please refer to the Insurance Guide for information on eligibility, and commencement of cover. The table in this section explains the level of cover and costs for both Personal and Employee Default Group Life insurance cover.

Cooling off period: If you choose to accept default insurance cover when you join MYONESUPER, the premiums will be deducted from your Account monthly in arrears. You have 28 days from acceptance of the application to opt-out of default cover before insurance premiums are deducted from your MYONESUPER Account. This is known as the cooling off period. After this period no insurance premium refund will be available.

Loss of cover: We cannot continue to provide insurance cover to accounts which have not received a contribution or rollover for sixteen months or longer, unless you make an election to maintain cover notwithstanding inactivity. We'll let you know if you're at risk of losing cover, and what your options are.

Voluntary cover

Voluntary Group Life Insurance cover is additional to default Group Life insurance cover, is available as a fixed amount of cover and is subject to underwriting.

Maximum amounts of insurance cover available are as follows:

- Death - no maximum,
- TPD - $3 million,
- Terminal Illness - $3 million, and
- Income Protection
 - 75% of your pre-disability monthly income up, to a maximum of $30,000 per month, including additional cover equal to the amount of employer contributions to Super Guarantee up to 10% p.a. of your pre-disability monthly income,

You may be able to transfer your current Death, TPD and Income Protection Cover from another insurer to MYONESUPER. Provided you meet eligibility conditions, cover will be converted to the same type and level of cover and the relevant policy premium rates under the MYONESUPER Group Life Insurance policy will be applied. The maximum value which can be transferred is $1 million death and TPD insurance cover, and Income Protection of $15,000 per month insurance cover, and your total insurance cover must not exceed the maximum cover limit under the insurance policy. You will be notified by the Fund of the acceptance of your insurance cover. Note, if you wish to increase your cover this will need to be underwritten and accepted by the Fund's insurer.

Cost of default insurance

There are costs associated with insurance cover. These costs (insurance premiums, including any stamp duty applicable are covered in detail in the Insurance Guide), which are deducted from your Account monthly in arrears, are calculated on the amount and type of cover, your age, gender, occupation and assessment by the Insurer (for any Voluntary cover).
